EXHIBIT A

Leasing Rules for The Enclave at Windsor Ridge HOA

For purposes of these Rules, leasing is defined as regular, exclusive occupancy of a dwelling on a Lot by any person other than the Owner. All leases must be for an initial term of twelve (12) months unless otherwise approved by the Board in writing upon the Owner's written application for an exception because of undue hardship on the Owner.

By way of illustration and not by limitation, circumstances which may constitute undue hardship are those in which:

- (i) an Owner must relocate his or her residence because of changes in employment, marital status or health reasons and cannot, within one hundred twenty (120) days from the date the Lot was placed on the market, sell the Lot while offering it for sale at a reasonable price no greater than its current appraised market value;
- (ii) the Owner dies and the Lot is being administered by his or her estate;
- (iii) the Owner takes a leave of absence or temporarily relocates and intends to return to reside in the dwelling;
- (iv) The seller has already closed on a new property and moved out, and wants a tenant in the home for a short duration while the home is still being actively marketed to sell;
- (v) The seller has moved out and wants to buy a few months of time to get into a more favorable time of the year (e.g. from late Fall into the Spring market);
- (vi) The seller's property has been on the market for quite a while and is 'stale'. A short-term lease is a way to give the property a rest, while subsidizing some of seller's ongoing carrying costs.

Violations of these Rules will subject the Owner to fines of not less than $1,000.00 (one thousand dollars) and not more than $10,000.00 (ten thousand dollars) per day of the ongoing violation. In case of conflict with other Policies of the HOA, these Rules shall control.

These Rules shall take effect two (2) months following the date these Rules are filed of record with the Office of the Dallas County Clerk.
